

Professional Services

The heart of a successful professional service firm is good management. Spire's team of professionals are committed to assisting professional organizations with the complexities of efficient and profitable management.

As the provider of accounting and advisory services to various professional services firms, including medical and dental practices, attorneys, and architects, Spire Group can advise you in several ways to ensure a successful business.

Accounting, Assurance and Tax Services

- Compilations, reviews, and audited financial statements
- Monthly financial reporting and analysis
- Financial budgets and projections
- Tax planning and compliance
- Representation before federal, state and local taxing authorities

Consulting and Advisory Services

- Cash flow planning
- Sales analysis
- Inventory management
- Receivables management
- Profit center accounting
- Lead/purchase analysis
- Strategic planning
- Business valuations
- Benchmarking and industry analysis
- Business tax planning

Focus on Industry Issues

- Multi-state and international operations
- FIFO planning
- Cycle counting implementation
- Work in progress accounting
- Cost segregation studies
- State and local taxation (SALT)
- Uniform Capitalization

Our team focuses on your financial needs to keep your business profitable, so you can stay focused on the work you love.

For more information, contact:

Robert Weir, CPA, CFE, CFF
rweir@spirecpa.com
973-629-5119

Recommended Resources:

The Center for Association Leadership:
www.asaecenter.org

Medical Group Management Association:
www.mgma.com

American Bar Association:
www.americanbar.org

American Dental Association:
www.ada.org

